Description

Affordable black A3 angled menu stand

Floor-standing A3 menu stand is perfect for cost conscious customers who want a professional-looking menu stand at a low price. In a classy matte black finish with a black powder coated snap frame, this will look great in a range of environments for all occasions and requirements.

Menu stand with angled display holder

Our black A3 angled floor menu stand features a telescopic pole with a simple locking mechanism meaning that you can quickly and simply adjust the height of the stand to perfectly suit your needs. The integral snap frame also provides a perfect way to display your posters whilst remaining the ability to swap them with ease and this comes with a poster protector. Using a ball action mechanism, the frame itself can be adjusted from landscape to portrait and even be rotated fully to give the ideal viewing angle for your menu to be seen. Please tighten securely after any adjustment.

The lightweight and portable abilities added to the classic black finish means this is a perfect stand for restaurants, venues, coffee shops and so forth. We recommend it being used indoors in places such as hotels, schools, and shops.

This cost-effective economy menu stand is equipped with a lightweight black metal base. Heavier duty angled floor stands are available in our range - see links below.

Also available with a smaller, A4 frame as well as a stylish matte chrome finish with a silver anodised snap frame.
