Description

Single-sided A4 tabletop print holder for your own tabletop signs

Made from high-clarity material and featuring polished edges, these single-sided A4 tabletop print holders are superb value. The slight slant ensures excellent viewability - ideal for displaying information on tables and countertops. An excellent way to display information inside polling stations, voting booths and election counting centres.

These sign holders are fabricated from high-clarity material and feature polished edges to display your printed sign. Manufactured from acrylic-look PS high-grade plastic.

- Slanted models are for single-sided use.
- The print is angled for convenient viewing.
- Angled print holders are the best choice for low tables or when viewed by people standing up - e.g. in a queue.

- A4 standard portrait and Landscape print holders are available while stocks last
- Order today to avoid disappointment

Do we have double-sided print holders too?
